

Arrogant people

Did you know these videos have been watched by nearly one million people?

One million video views!

Can you believe it?

It's pretty crazy, huh?

All of this attention is kind of new to me

I mean it's nice I get to meet new people but the kind of attention that I'm not a fan of is when people walk up and ask for autographs.

That's when things get weird...

Asalamu alaikum brother, how are you doing?

Walaikum Salam. Alhummdullilah I'm doing well.

Oh good brother. My kid wants your autograph so please sign.

Uhh, I don't actually give out autographs—

You what? You don't give autographs? Who do you think you—

STOP! It is for this very reason I don't give autographs.

Just because I got some attention making some videos doesn't make me better than anyone else.

So my signature ain't worth anymore than yours is.

But I can't say that because by the time I say no they're already walking away.

So I'm saying it in the video.

Shaytan will use many things including success to mislead us.

To make us arrogant, to make us think that the success, is because of you.

But in fact all success is only because of Allah Subhana Watallah.

And once we think we're better than the next person not only will we become arrogant

but we will become ignorant aswell.

The scary part is that many arrogant people don't even see their arrogance.

This is why I try and make dua to Allah Subhana Watallah, to take any arrogance out of my heart.

I come across a lot of arrogant people.

And some of them have no clue.

They don't see the things they do.

Or the way they carry themselves.

Even the funny faces they make.

I don't think they know they're making funny faces.

They think for whatever reason the world revolves around them.

It doesn't.

Arrogant people aren't easy to talk to.

They don't even give you a chance to speak.

It's like they don't get tired of listening to themselves.

As if they're in love with the sound of their own voice.

Actually maybe, may-maybe.... maybeee. That sounds good doesn't it? Maaybee. Wow.

You got a tape recorder?

There are many things that can make someone arrogant.

Here are just a few.

Looks

Hey what's up man?

Bro, what are you doing?

Just taking care... of my hair.

What hair?

Funny....no. Uhh, Ok ok seriously tell me which one looks better. The "I look good" or the "I look good"

Uhhh I don't see a difference.

That's because your *fake cough* jealous.

Some girls they fall into the same trap they think their beauty makes them better than other girls.

Some guys get intimidated by these beautiful girls.

So they think they're not good enough to ask these girls for marriage.

You see the ideas you carry are what's important.

Not the looks.

Don't get me wrong, looks is nice, but its only icing on the cake.

Its all temporary.

So next time you feel intimidated because some beautiful thinks she's better than you.

Just remember, her poo poo smells just as bad as yours.

You know what I'm saying ?

*cough* I know what your saying *cough* ... open a window, open a window!

Working out.

Some guys get arrogant when they start working out.

That's when a guy who should be wearing a large sized shirt is wearing a small.

Sometimes extra small.

You guys know what I'm talking about right?

I'm talking about the guys whose wardrobe suddenly turns from cotton to spandex.

You know who I'm talking about.

There ofcourse are those other guys who start acting weird when they start working out.

Hey man what's up ?

Hey.

So you want me to train you or what? I'll give you my workout plan.

Uhh no. Why are your arms like that?

What? Lemme open the door and get closer. Ok what were you saying?

I was saying why are you arms like that, did you get hurt?

I didn't get hurt baby, I got huge! HUGE!

Uhh...ok.

Knowledge

For some reason when some people get a degree, they get an attitude.

I hate to say it brother but I will. You're wrong, again. And I'm right.

Actually according to the numbers here it looks like the calculations came out correct.

You want me to give you a copy of the—

I don't need to see the numbers, I have a PhD. Here take a look at my card.

Ok. Your PhD is in psychology, we're talking about engineering here. So I don't see what this has to do with—

You're obviously wrong, so, I think your *cough* jealous. I think we're done here.

Have you met those type of people, who learn a little bit about Islam and they think they're better than you.

I'll give you a little story.

One time a group of us were travelling and went to a local Masjid to pray.

There wasn't anyone there so we decided to start our own jamaat.

As soon as we selected the most knowledgeable brother of us to lead the prayer, two other people entered and asked if they could join us in prayer.

Of course we said yes.

Then one of those two brothers asked the brother who led the prayer, to step behind and let his friend lead the prayer because he is more "knowlegable" than you.

Joke!

They don't know us. We were travellers in that city. Then his friend walks up like he's some type of royalty.

Joke!

Fake humbleness.

Have I ever told you how humble I am?

Uhh...yeah

Let me tell you again.

When people have to tell you how humble they are, that's not being humble.

You know what I'm saying?

Status

I've seen rich people become poor and poor people become rich.

I used to think that money corrupts people, but it doesn't.

Money doesn't corrupt people.

It exposes them.

A poor person could be just as bad as a rich person that he's criticising

But since he hasn't had to go through that trial of wealth, he doesn't know that.

And until you go through that trial, you don't know that.

Position

Then comes position. You know sometimes people get put into this special type of position and it gets to their heads.

Be that the position of a leader who rules over a country

Or a husband whose responsible for his family

Some people feel powerful because they are in charge.

And many, they abuse that power.

Don't they know that they're going to be accountable to Allah Subhanah Watallah on the Day of Judgement?

With every power, comes accountability.

And if you take advantage it to serve your own desires

Then you will answer in front of Allah Subhanah Watallah.

We may not always see justice in this life, but justice will definitely come in the hereafter.

Islam teaches us that a person with even a small amount of arrogance in their heart won't enter paradise.

So we must be humble no matter how much success reaches us.

And I'm reminding myself before I remind anyone else.

All of the success I've seen so far with Ummah Films is nothing more than a trial.

Let us be more conscious of the way we carry ourselves.

So we'll be more careful before we fall into Shaytan's trap.

It was his arrogance that stopped him from listening to Allah Subhana Watallah.

Note *(This statement is incorrect so please do not put it on the video or translate it "And made him from Iblis to Shaytan" )

So it would be foolish for us to follow the same footsteps he did, because we saw what happened to him.

You know what I'm saying?

I'm just another Muslim brother just trying to remind people and remind myself.

And I hope these videos help all of us inshallah.

So we can become successful in this life and more importantly the hereafter.

Inshallah.

This is Ali reminding you just in case you forgot.

This is Ali reminding you just in case you forgot.
